RELEASE AND DISCHARGE AGREEMENT

Release and Discharge Agreement: An agreement to be free and clear

By signing the Release and Discharge Agreement, you acknowledge that you have received compensation for any known damages and, in return, you agree not to institute any action against Canadian Malartic Mine with respect to those damages.

RELEASE AND DISCHARGE AGREEMENT...

IMPORTANT

The Release and Discharge Agreement formalizes the transaction. As with any other agreement, it is important that you understand it well.

VOLUNTARY

The Release and Discharge Agreement is an agreement proposed by Canadian Malartic Mine. You are free to sign it in exchange for compensation.

FINAL

In exchange for compensation, you waive your rights to institute any action for past mining operations and the damages covered by the Release and Discharge Agreement.

THE PAST

The Release and Discharge Agreement deals solely with past mining operations and not future mining operations. That is why it must be signed each year.

ANNUAL

At the beginning of each year, you will have the option of signing the Release and Discharge Agreement in order to receive compensation for the previous year. An eligible citizen must sign a release within thirty (30) days after he or she, or a family member who is also a signatory to the release, has received it.

Your decision to sign and obtain compensation is always made after the compensation period.

RELEASE AND DISCHARGE AGREEMENT

WHAT'S INCLUDED

The Release and Discharge Agreement is for any and all known damage stemming from the mine's operations for the past compensation period.

WHAT'S EXCLUDED

Damage that, at the time of the signing of the Release and Discharge Agreement, was not known or could not have reasonably been known to you.

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO IF YOU THINK THAT ALL YOUR IMPACTS ARE GREATER THAN THE COMPENSATION OFFERED?

You can always refuse compensation (and thus the Release and Discharge Agreement) and seek other relief for the damages covered by this Release and Discharge Agreement.

It's normal to have questions about the Release and Discharge Agreement. We encourage you to contact us so that we can discuss them with you.
